

Addie Daughtery

May 7, 1939 - October 22, 2024

Addie Jean Robinson Daughtery was born to the late Joe and Mamie Sue Robinson on May 7, 1939, in Memphis, Tennessee.

She accepted Christ at the age of 12 years old, at Bush Grove Church, No. 1, under the leadership of Rev. George Jones. At the age of 15 years old, she united with Oak Grove Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor P. L. Honeywood, Sr., in Memphis, TN. She served as a faithful choir member for over 60 years.

Addie Jean was a 1958 graduate of Mt. Pisgah High School in Cordova, TN.

She attended Shelby State Community College in Memphis, TN and Lane College in Jackson, TN. She loved playing basketball. She played point guard and was often called, "Lightning" because of her swiftness on the court. Her favorite hobbies were cooking and singing.

She was employed with Shelby County Jail, Campbell's Clinic, First Baptist Church of Memphis and The University of Tennessee.

She was united in holy matrimony to Dempsey Daughtery, who preceded her in death. One son, Dempsey DeWayne Daughtery, one stepdaughter, Monica Daughtery, and four siblings, James Robinson, Herman Robinson, Audrey Faye Johnson, and Dorothy Shotwell, all preceded her in death.

She leaves to cherish her memories: three sons, Ellis G. Shotwell, Reginald (Mia) Robinson and Eric Shotwell; two daughters, Angela Shotwell and Dana Daughtery; one brother, Jeffrey Robinson; three sisters, Wilmer Robinson, Etta Davenport and Wanda Robinson, five sisters-in-law; Geraldine Robinson,

Gloria Turner, Perry Ann Langston, Mae Helen Greer and Bernita Greer; two brothers-in-law, Terry (Rhonda) Greer and Julius Greer: a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.
