

Charles "NuNu" Eason Jr.

April 28, 1968 - January 13, 2025

Charles Eason Jr., affectionately known by many names—"Nu-Nu," "Chewy," "Horse," "Chuck," and simply, "Detroit"—was a man whose heart and spirit touched all who had the privilege of knowing him. Born on April 28, 1968, in Detroit, Michigan, to Charles Eason Sr. and Lillian E. Eason, Charles spent 56 remarkable years spreading love, joy, and connection to everyone he encountered.

From an early age, Charles professed his faith in Christ and was baptized at Burnett Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Pastor James Allen Caldwell Sr. As a young boy, he served faithfully as an usher on the Jr. Usher Board and sang with devotion in the Jr. Choir, embodying his deep love for God and community.

Educated in the Detroit City Schools, Charles attended Herman Elementary, Lessenger Junior High, and Frank Cody High School. Wherever he went, Charles left an impression.

His personality was larger than life, and his smile could light up any room.

To know Charles was to know a friend. Charles had a unique gift for connecting with people—he saw no strangers, only friends he hadn't yet met. His heart was as big as his laugh, and his passion for life was undeniable. Whether he was lending a helping hand, sharing a joke, or simply being present, Charles reminded us all of the beauty in everyday moments.

Charles was preceded in death by his father, Charles Eason Sr., along with beloved grandparents, aunts, and uncles who welcomed him with open arms in heaven.

He leaves behind a legacy of love, kindness, and cherished memories.

Surviving him are his devoted mother, Lillian E. Eason; his loving sister, La Tonya M. Eason; his nephew, Kevin J. Reeves (Savannah); and his precious great-niece, Eleanor Reeves. A host of cousins, aunts, uncles, and countless friends also carry forward his memory.
