“ Precious Memories of Mr. Wesley

Mr. Wesley was not only my voice teacher but also a remarkable influence in my life. I had the privilege of speaking with him not long ago, and during our conversation, I shared how much he meant to me and how deeply I appreciated him. He was incredibly kind, caring, and genuinely concerned about me as his student.

I thanked him for the way he treated me—with respect, patience, and encouragement—and for the invaluable teachings he imparted. I also expressed how much I thought of him as a person and as a mentor. Mr. Wesley had a unique gift for leaving a lasting impression on everyone he encountered.

His impact on me was so profound that I encouraged my daughter to take voice lessons under his guidance, knowing she would benefit from his expertise and warmth just as I had. Mr. Wesley was truly one of the best—a rare and remarkable person whose legacy will continue to live on in the lives of those he touched.

The world feels a little dimmer without you in it, Mr. Wesley. You will forever be missed, but your memory and the lessons you shared will remain a bright light in our hearts.

Mr. Wesley was a awesome person, he was more like family. He wasn't my voice teacher but he loved all of us the same. He was admired by many and he will be missed.

Although, I am a graduate of Edward Waters College/University 1983, I met Ivy Chandler-Carter in 1988 while working with her in the Music Department. Mr. Wesley, I can see your teachings all through her examples. She exemplified the Prima Donna personalities that could have only come through your teachings. You will be greatly missed.

I am forever grateful for his tutelage, inspiration, and motivation toward achieving academic excellence! I also thank him for making me churn all of that home made ice cream when I visited my favorite uncle and aunt as a child In Mississippi!!! With Deepest Regret, Sympathy, and Love!

Mr. Wesley was one of my most well prepared teachers at Rosa A. Temple HS. He was also the advisor and counselor for our "Esquire" social club. I admired his professionalism, attention to detail and self presentation. It impressed me and help to shape me into the man that I became. May he rest in peace eternally.
