

Claude Carter

February 13, 1957 - January 31, 2021

Claude Carter was born February 13, 1957 in Memphis, TN to the late Argentry and Elnora Carter. He was the seventh of eight children.

Claude confessed his belief in Christ at an early age and was baptized at Greater Mt. Zion Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. E. V. McGhee. He was later affiliated with Hunter Avenue Missionary Baptist Church under the spiritual guidance of Rev. L. R. Hunter. Claude's Christian journey eventually led him to New Bethel Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. C. L. Mathis. He remained a faithful member until his death.

Claude was a son, brother, uncle, mentor and an inspiration for his family, friends and community. He was a blessing to all who had the opportunity to meet and know him.

Claude was a graduate of Trezevant High School (Memphis, TN). His captivating smile and twinkly eyes brightened the hearts of many. He had a vivacious and humorous personality. He loved to tell jokes to make people laugh! And, he laughed as hard as his audience. He enjoyed swimming, dancing, playing cards, watching sports, debating world issues and pondering.

Claude's memory is etched in the hearts of his loved ones: two sisters Estella

L. Jordan (Los Angeles, CA, Frieda J. Brown (Arlington, TN), two brothers, Mose A. Carter (Wanda), Clyde Carter, (both of Memphis, TN), a sister-in-law, Jacqueline Jordan (Memphis, TN), and a host of nephews, nieces, other relatives and friends.

Three siblings, David Lee Jordan, Sr., Ronald Perry Carter, and Faye Elaine Butler, preceded him in death.
