

Cynthia Webb

January 3, 1957 - October 30, 2023

Cynthia Louise Webb was born January 3, 1957, to the late Ernestine and James Rutherford in Memphis, Tennessee; she was the third of eight children. To know Cynthia was to know that she had a sweet and humble spirit. She was a devoted wife to Ron, a loving mother to Rhonda, an adoring grandmother to Sevyn and Osiris, and a great sister, aunt and friend.

At the age of twelve, she professed a hope in Christ at Middle Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Reverend Lester Baskin.

Cynthia was educated in the Memphis City Schools System. In 1975, she graduated from Fairley High School. She loved spending time with her family. Her heart was devoted to helping children. She followed her passion and love for children as an early childhood development teacher at Riverview Kansas Daycare.

Cynthia leaves to cherish fond memories: her devoted husband, Ronald Webb; her daughter, Rhonda (Lewis) McCaster; stepson, Justin Webb; seven grandchildren, four brothers and two sisters, Clevell (Jacquelyn) Perkins, Irish Sanders, Russell (Peggy) Rutherford, James (Rachel) Rutherford, Gerald (Shirley) Rutherford, and Edith (Wayne) Knox; her mother-in-law, Margaret Conner; two sisters-in-law, Linda and Janette; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
