“ Darnell "Poppa" Jeans born to the late Tommie & Willie Jeans Sr. on August 20, 1962 in Hernando MS. He was the 5th child of 9, five brothers and 3 sisters.

Darnell was the of any event he attended. He had dance moves no one could duplicate. His family & friends always called him to the dance floor to do his famous "washing machine" move, even in his last days he still would try dancing and singing and cracking jokes. Like most Dallas cowboys fans, He was a fighter.

Darnell Known to most as Pop, was a fly dresser with slick moves and cool attitude who kept us laughing. He was a sensitive soul who was heartbroken after losing his brother/partner in crime, Danny "Boom" Jeans. He always said before you hear a "Pop" its a "Boom"! Together they are back again, in Heaven, he leave to cherish his memories, his love of over 40 years, 3kids, 7siblings, a host of grandchildren, nieces and nephews and close family & friends.

Thx for the memories...your niece Baby/Temp 💙 ☐
