Darnell Lashun Williams, born on January 31, 1997, passed away on July 12, 2025, at the age of 28 in Memphis, Tennessee. Darnell was known and loved as an all-around cool soul — someone who brought laughter, warmth, and love to everyone around him. A proud graduate of PCA, where he played basketball with passion and heart, he later pursued higher education at Tennessee State University before obtaining his CDL from Delta Tech. He was a dedicated gamer and well-known streamer, earning respect and admiration in the gaming community. Whether online or in real life, Darnell had a natural ability to connect with people and make them feel seen. His presence was magnetic, and his heart was always open.

He is survived by his loving parents, Tousha Williams and Darnell Stanton; and by his siblings: Daniesa Hill, Tarvis Williams, Tarvicia Williams, Voniesha Cathey, Darnella Stanton, Devonte Wilkins, Treterrius Cathey, and Sydney Harris. Darnell also leaves behind twelve beloved nieces and nephews who adored him deeply.

He is lovingly remembered by his grandparents Thurmond Williams and Lee Williams, and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, extended family, and friends who will forever cherish his memory.

Darnell was preceded in death by his grandparents Danease Virginia Liddell, Berdina Stanton & Tommie Stanton—each of whom welcomed him home with open arms. Though Darnell's physical presence has left us, his spirit lives on in every smile he gave, every laugh he shared, and every life he touched. He will always be remembered, always be missed, and always be loved.
