

David Hollis Sharp

April 18, 1954 - January 15, 2025

David Hollis Sharp was born on April 18, 1954 to the late William T. Sharp, Jr. and Malissa Royston Sharp in Memphis, Tennessee. David was the third of six children. He was preceded in death by his older brother, William T. Sharp, III and sister, Lynda Joystein Sharp Massey.

David graduated from Hamilton High School in 1973.

David's God given talents were apparent at an early age. With no formal training, he could draw almost anything, such as self-portraits. He later dove into watercolors and painted many images of landscapes and the family farm. David also taught himself to play keyboards and was a member of The New Faith Band; the band recorded and produced a gospel album. David dedicated his contributions to the albums to his parents, William and Malissa Sharp.

David will be greatly missed by his sisters, Vivian Sharp Holley, Karen Sharp White (P. Daniel White), Shasta Lovell Sharp (Shaka Khalphani), sister-in-law & love, Helen A. Sharp, who were there for him, and also a very special and loving aunt, Clara Sharp.

David was also loved, cared for and will be missed by his ten nieces/nephews and a host of other family members and close friends.
