

Dorothy A. Glover

February 19, 1948 - December 2, 2023

Dorothy Agnes Glover (75) of Dermott, AR transitioned to her eternal home on Saturday, December 2, 2023 in Bartlett, TN. She was born in Baltimore, MD on February 19, 1948 to Willie B. Harris, Sr. and Dorothy (Ratliff) Harris. She attended Baltimore City Schools and graduated from Edmonson High School in 1966. She continued her education at Morgan State College in Baltimore, MD and later graduated from the University of Arkansas in Monticello.

Growing up in Baltimore, Dorothy attended St. Edwards Roman Catholic Church and later joined New Shiloh Baptist Church during her young adult years. Dorothy enjoyed playing tennis, walking, and reading. In addition, Dorothy really enjoyed listening to gospel music, watching TBN, Daystar, and several Christian and informational programs on YouTube.

While living in Baltimore, Dorothy worked for the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) in Washington, DC until she married her soul mate, Judge Don Glover on August 18, 1974. She moved to Dermott, AR with her husband, and they had 2 children, Dorcedar and Doven. Dorothy worked for the Department of Human Services (DHS) as a social worker, where she retired after 20 years of service. After retirement Dorothy volunteered for Home Health Hospice in Monticello. Dorothy was known for being a very loving person, praying woman, an encourager, caring for others, and helping out whomever she could. She was particularly inspired by her grandfather who taught her the importance of having a relationship with God. Dorothy was a member of St. Paul Missionary Baptist Church in Dermott, AR under the leadership of Pastor Doran Newhouse.

Dorothy was preceded in death by her parents, Willie and Dorothy Harris and her brothers, Raymond L. Harris, Sr. and Willie B.
