

Floyd Nickson

October 24, 1962 - February 4, 2021

Floyd Antonio “Tony” Nickson was born October 24, 1962, in Memphis, Tennessee, to the late Roberta Gunn Nickson and the late Willie Nickson.

He accepted Christ as a teenager and was baptized.

He moved from Memphis to Tunica, Mississippi, at the age of seven. He was a 1981 graduate of Rosa Fort High School in Tunica, Mississippi. Floyd was a member of the F&AM Masonic Keystone Lodge 20. He was a highly skilled mechanic and was employed with the City of Memphis. Floyd was passionate about his job and loved to repair vehicles.

Floyd was united in holy matrimony to Nicole in 1997.

On February 4, 2021, his life’s journey peacefully came to an end. He entered into eternal rest with his wife, Nicole, by his side at Baptist Memorial Hospital East.

Left to cherish his memories are: his wife, Nicole Nickson; daughters, Briana Nickson, Shontegra Nickson-Mason (Stevan) of Horn Lake, Mississippi, Toconna Johnson (Mario) of Euless, Texas, and Kenesis Sullivan; sons, Jordan Nickson and Jeremy Jackson; brother, Willie Anthony Nickson; sister-in-law, Lautrice Nickson; and a host of grandchildren, other relatives and friends.
