

James Leon Arnold

November 7, 1958 - January 31, 2026

James Leon Arnold was born November 17, 1958 in Memphis, TN to the late Reverend Leroy Arnold Sr. and Thelma Williams. He professed a hope in Christ at an early age at New Nonconnah M.B. Church under the leadership of the late Reverend R.L. Jones. Leon passed away peacefully on January 31, 2026 at Regional One Hospital. He was preceded in death by his parents, Reverend Leroy Arnold, Sr and Ms Thelma Williams, sister, Mary Woods.

Leon received his education at Melrose High School in Memphis, Tennessee. Leon relocated to Oceanside, CA. where he began his entrepreneurship in Property Restoration. He relocated his Company, CDL Inc. to Kansas City, MO before returning home to Memphis branching out to another market, seafood. He purchased a location in Southaven, MS and was in the process of building his fish business prior to his illness.

Leon leaves to cherish his memories his devoted partner, LaKresha Jones, one son, Angle, three daughters, Laquetta, Nicole and Katelyn. Five Grandchildren and two Great Grandchildren. Brothers; Leroy Arnold Jr (LilChelle), Dante E. Arnold, Montrelle Arnold (Kamesha), Jimmy Cook, Aaron Cook (Sandra). Sisters; Joan Clark, Shirley Cook, Everlina Duffy and Mary Jones. Five aunts; Lucille Arnold, Ella Cox Arnold, Lillie Robinson, Berta Hines and Eddy Mae Elston. A host of nieces, nephews, cousins, family and friends.

Leon was a true family man. He loved all his family and tried to make sure we all knew it. He called around to make sure everyone knew about the upcoming family reunions every year. He wanted all the family to be together, so we knew each other.
