

Jamil Jackson

March 9, 1977 - January 7, 2024

Jamil Kadar Jackson, a vibrant soul, entered this world on March 9, 1977, in Memphis, Tennessee, born to the loving embrace of Frank Jackson and Mary Rogers Jackson. On Sunday, January 7, 2024, God, in His infinite wisdom, called Jamil home. Jamil's spiritual journey began at Mt. Pisgah, where he embraced Christ August 1986. In his youth, he actively contributed to the church as a member of the usher board and later found his passion in the Mt. Pisgah music ministry, showcasing his musical talent with the saxophone. His educational journey led him through the Shelby County school system, shaping his character at Capelville Elementary, Kirby Middle, Havenview Middle, and culminating in his graduation from Whitehaven High School in the Class of 1995. Post-graduation, Jamil realized a cherished dream by becoming a proud member of the "Marching Hornets" band at Alabama State University in Montgomery, AL.

Jamil's connection with the community extended to the Orange Mound Community Choir, where his musical talents echoed for many years. A social butterfly, Jamil effortlessly befriended everyone he encountered, leaving a trail of friends and fond memories. His outgoing and witty nature captivated both friends and co-workers alike.

Life's adventures took Jamil to various corners of the world, with his recent escapade leading him to the enchanting shores of Hawaii. He found joy in home projects and DIY endeavors, showcasing a diverse range of interests. A true car enthusiast, Jamil delighted in the beauty of automobiles, appreciating the experience of various models throughout his life. His love for fashion and music was a testament to his eclectic tastes.

After residing in Nashville for many years, Jamil returned to his roots in Memphis in 2018. His professional journey led him to One GI, where he contributed his skills and talents.

Jamil's legacy is eternally cherished by his parents, Frank and Mary Jackson; his beloved daughter, Bresjey Airelle Jackson, who held a special place in his heart; his granddaughter, Baileigh Airelle Braxton, who affectionately called him PaPa Mil; his only sister, Jarita Marie Jackson; his loving partner, Andrea Snorton; his favorite aunt, Jacqueline Sweeney, and a multitude of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends who were touched by his presence.

In celebrating Jamil's life, we honor the vivid array of memories he has woven into the hearts of those fortunate enough to know him.

“ My Cousin Jamil,

I'll always cherish the times you'd come to Atlanta and we'd hit the city up. There was never a dull moment, and we were always cracking jokes and laughing about something. The news of your passing was hard to process. You're no longer in any pain. Love you cuzzo. Rest well.

“ RESOLUTION

Mr. Jamil Jackson, his family, and the Alabama State University MMH crab class of 1995

WHEAREAS It is with great sadness that we received the news of our beloved Mighty Marching Hornet brother, Jamil Jackson's departure from this life into eternal life. Please know that all our thoughts and prayers for God's comfort and peace are with you.

WHEREAS It has pleased our Heavenly Father to translate from the labors of this life to the sweet rest and fellowship of the saints in Heaven, and,

WHEREAS We, The Alabama State University Mighty Marching Hornets Band, saxophone section, desire to place on record our love and esteem for our fellow brother, Jamil Jackson.

To his family and his MMH crab class of 1995, be encouraged. We know that your beloved one is now enjoying God's presence.

Beyond that, we are left with this truth: God, in His matchless love and power is planning a glorious reunion. Then, our eternal rejoicing will begin. The last page of this great mystery has a happy ending.

Remember, God's people never say goodbye for the last time.

*Respectfully submitted,
The Alabama State University Mighty Marching Hornets Band
