

Jeremie "Big Face" Parker

September 26, 1984 - May 31, 2022

Jeremy Quinton Parker, AKA "Big Face", began his journey in Memphis, Tennessee, on September 26, 1984; he was the only son of James and Valerie Parker. Jeremy's journey ended on May 31, 2022.

Jeremy's faith of Muslim conversion took place in 2012. He was faithful to his religion. Oftentimes he attended the Mosque.

Jeremy attended Sheffield High School. To know Jeremy was to love him. He had a passion for the Culinary Arts, attended L'Ecole Culinary Institute, and received his Culinary Certificate in 2016. He was always the life of the party and was well-liked by many. Jeremy loved to travel, loved sports, especially the Memphis Grizzlies and regardless of the occasion his attire was on point. Jeremy loved spending time with his family and was the bond that held the family together.

Jeremy leaves to mourn his passing and cherish his memories his loving mother and father, Valerie Parker and James Parker who loved him dearly. He also leaves his wonderful and loving children, JaLynn, Jermilynn, and Kamren; his loving and adorable sisters, Verneshea, Alease and Bridgette (Veda); and a host of nieces, nephews, family, and friends. He also leaves to cherish his memory his lifetime partner of twenty-one years, Ashley Watkins.

Preceding him in death are his grandparents, James and Dorothy Flowers, and JoAnn Parker.
