

John L. Hardin

April 26, 1943 - October 18, 2023

John Leonardo Hardin was born on April 26, 1943 to Marcella Brown and Andrew Hardin in Drew, Mississippi.

He moved to Memphis with his parents at the age of 2 years old. He attended Memphis area schools and Carver High School up until the 11th grade. John went on to complete his GED and received certifications in Air Conditioning and Electrical. He worked various jobs including

Memphis House Cleaning, Keathley's Bakery before joining the Memphis, Light, Gas, and Water Company. He worked for MLG&W 25 years before retiring in 1998.

John's greatest passion was reading, he enjoyed learning new things to share. He loved fishing and started the John Harding Fishing Club. His other hobbies include woodworking, small engine repair, welding, and printing pages of recipes from the internet. He particularly loved cooking to try new recipes. It gave him great joy to send all his grandchildren Wal-mart gift cards every Christmas and was a generous giver to many charitable organizations.

He loved his family and leaves to cherish his memory wife Lizzie A. Hardin, sons Keith Williams

(Pennie) of Jacksonville, Florida, Sean & Terrance Hardin both of Memphis, grandchildren

Donovan Williams (Shalamar) Jacksonville, FL, Keith Thomas Williams, Jordan Hardin, Malachi

Hardin, Zoe Hardin, Anylah Teart, great grandchildren Arianna and Joshua Williams; two sisters

Sarah Frederick and Emma
