“ Julius was so much like his youngest uncle, whose nickname was, “Blue” that he gave himself the nickname, “Bleu”, after Blue died. I will always remember Julius’s quiet demeanor, always flashing the peace sign with his fingers

He was really a people person. Most of all I thank God that Julius gave his life to Jesus.

I remember Julius coming to Shady Grove with his foster mom when he was about three years old. I watched him grow up. He has always treated me with honor and respect. I am going to miss that smile on his face as he greeted me with a hug each Sunday morning. I I I am also going to miss him from participating in the different activities at the neighborhood community center. Julius’ sudden departure was a surprise to us at Shady Grove. This should be a warning to all of us. No man knows the day nor the hour that we will die. Only GOD knows. We should not get ready. We should already be prepared to meet our LORD and SAVIOR, JESUS CHRIST. Be ready. Rest in peace, Julius. May the LORD strengthen and comfort the family and give them peace.
