

Linda Reliford

July 26, 1951 - February 25, 2022

On July 26, 1951, a precious daughter was born to the late Robert Blackwell and Barbara Jean Blackwell. She went home to be with the Lord on February 25, 2022. She professed a hope in Christ at an early age at Riverside Baptist Church.

Linda was a graduate of Booker T. Washington High School and an alumna of LeMoyne Owen College. She was employed as an officer at Fort Pillow State Prison in Henning, Tennessee. She retired from the Shelby County Sherriff's Department where she was employed as a deputy jailer, counselor, and union representative. She also retired from Northwest/Delta Airlines and Pinnacle Airlines as an airline stewardess. Following her retirement, she was employed as a Director with Gaisman Community Center in Memphis, Tennessee, where she was employed until her health failed.

She leaves to cherish her memory her children, Robalind Blackwell, Torran Fifer (LaTacha), Cassandra Blackwell, and Kendria Green (Craig); grandchildren, Devin Bailey, Darrius Spencer, Brittany Spencer, Craig Green, Tia Fifer, and Tamia Fifer; two great-grandchildren, Bella Spencer and Devin G. Bailey.

She was preceded in death by one brother, Purnell Blackwell, and her great-grandson, Brandon Spencer.

We thank our Heavenly Father for blessing our lives with her presence.
