“ I met Melissa in 1995, she was working at FedEx and I was soon to be. She was a beautiful, kind, sweet soul that looked to the best in life. I loved her deeply and for a brief time in our few years together, we were engaged. Sadly, for whatever reason, and despite our best efforts, we could not make the relationship last. It has been roughly 25 years since then and about 15 years since a last random conversation. Though time has passed, I still regard her as the dearest heart who deserved so much more and better than she ever received from me or this world. A quote I found on her social media seems appropriate, "The heart that has truly loved never forgets, But as truly loves on to the close." Sending love spinning into infinity after you, Melissa. My deepest condolences to your brother and mother.

Eternal rest grant unto her, O Lord. And let perpetual light shine upon her. May the soul of the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen.
