“ First of all, let me say to the family. My heart aches with you in this great loss. May God comfort you during the days ahead. My best memories of Melvin was at the hippadrum skating rink. Melvin, Donald Ray, John Gaters, were three of baddest dudes there on 8 wheels. They had moves I could only dream of. But one day came when I finally got the nerves to hit the floor and Melvin took me under his wing. And as they say, the rest is history. Years after he put away his skates, I still knew I couldn't hold water with Melvin. But he never stopped encouraging me to keep skating. He hated when he stopped because he said if kelp him up on his toes. I always told him that I would never be as good as him. Rest on Melvin. You fought a good fight and now you've got your reward. Love and miss you more than words can express.

“ To My Uncle Melvin now in Heaven,
As the days start to gather closer for me to say my last good-bys to you. It feels bittersweet but at the same time, God knows best for each and everyone of us that call ourselves his children. Someone as special as you can never be forgotten. Thank you for the 47 years of being one of my cool Uncle. Growing up as a little girl, I do have fun laughter memories of you.

Eventhough last year was a very sad occasion for your big sister and her children. I was glad to have talked and laughed with you at my Dad's wake. Now a year later, I'm looking down on your remains. Lord knows...

No words can describe how sorry I am for other loss in the Fowler Family once again. To my Auntie Dercel and my cousins, Please accept my deepest sympathy.

Nothing can replace the loss of a loved one, but life goes on, and we have to live for those we truly say we love.

Forever in my prayer 🙏
Your Niece Netta ❤️
