“Melvyn. Melvyn. You were more than a cousin but a friend. I only needed to be with you for two minutes before we started laughing! You’re an angel man and will always be immortal in the hearts of so many, including mine. Enjoy heaven!”

“My name is Dicta Ndolo. His aunt, Lula Butler adopted me and my family when we lived in Memphis TN, in the mid 1990s. The love is still very much alive today. I will sorely miss Melvyn. My most treasured memory of him was when my family and I visited his family in Mississippi. His uncles made some delicious home-made ice cream! We all sat around the sumptuous spread of food, enjoying fun and family fellowship. Melvyn had a million-dollar smile on his face as he enjoyed his bowl of ice cream and laughed at each of the endless jokes going around. This is a memory that I have always, and will always, treasure. He was a blessing to everyone in his very loving extended family. He was very much loved too. Just watching his beautiful relationship with his mom was an encouragement to me , as my young son had just then, been diagnosed with Autism. Rest In Peace, my darling Melvyn. You courageously ran your race and won, because you chose to become a child of God through faith in Jesus Christ. In your sweet ways, you preached the gospel by living it. We shall meet again sweetheart. Adieu. Love from Dicta Ndolo.”
