Condolences and prayers to the family from the Conwell and Stokes family. Mike also known as Mr. Miyagi to some in the neighborhood. Every time I saw you it took me at least 10 minutes to leave. You would continually say hold up and laughing at the same time. Then you would finally convince me to drop you off at the store with it being my treat. Rest well my brother.

My prayers are with Michael's mom, Claudine and all of his siblings and family. Though I only saw Michael and his big smile a few times, I've known his family most of my life. The Kimbles are good people and Michael is now with two other Kimbles that not only made me smile they made me laugh to the point of tears. Will always miss Louis and my Nadine, and I pray that now they are all making the angels smile, too!
