Ms. Ophelia Johnson Wade was born March 7, 1938, to the parents of Henry L. and Ina Marie Johnson in Fayette County, TN. She departed this life on Thursday, March 3, 2023, at Saint Francis Bartlett. Two things were very important to Ophelia, her love for her family, and her love for God.

Ophelia accepted Christ as her personal Savior at an early age at Hammond Grove Baptist Church, under the leadership of R. H. Anthony, where she served faithfully. During her time at Hammond Grove Baptist Church, she participated in the choir, served on the Mother's Board, and was a faithful participant of Sunday School Class number 3.

Ophelia graduated from Barret's Chapel School of Arlington, TN. She worked at Deb'Nheir Children Clothing Store for over 20 years. She later retired to enjoy the rest of her life. In 1957, Ophelia welcomed her first born son, Charlie Williams, followed by Eric Williams, and Marvin Williams. She was a dedicated mother to her sons, raising them to be strong, independent men and to love the Lord.

Ophelia enjoyed spending time watching Wheel of Fortune and other shows. On March 3, 2023, Ophelia answered God's call from labor to eternal rest. In rest, she is reunited with her parents, Henry L. and Ina Marie Johnson, her son Eric Williams, brother Charles Johnson, three sisters, Joyce Mayes,
