

Parris Jackson

February 8, 1966 - June 15, 2024

Parris Keith Jackson was born February 8, 1966, in Memphis, Tennessee, to the parents of Mary Byas-Jackson and David Gaston. Parris confessed a hope in Jesus Christ as his personal Savior at an early age at Greater White Stone Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor Joseph McGee. Later in life, he returned to the Lord, became a member of Greater Adelaide Ministries under the leadership of Apostle Dr. Lee Andre Taber, where he served as a Deacon and Choir Member.

On Saturday, June 15, 2024, Parris transitioned to his Heavenly Home to live eternally with Jesus. He was preceded in death by his grandmother: Dorothy Travis; his uncle Jerry Jackson; his grandfather, Edward Jackson; and his step father, William G. Byas.

Parris graduated from Booker T Washington High School. Home of the Mighty Warriors...Green and Yellow...where he played Running Back. He loved spending time with his mother, wife, family, relatives, and friends. Most of all, Parris loved praising God, and was a die hard Pittsburgh Steelers Fan until the end. Go Steeler Nation!

Parris had beyond twenty years experience in the Judicial System as a Corrections Deputy. He was employed with various Correctional Center Facilities throughout the states and throughout his life, Just to name a few:

WackenHut Prison, Shelby County Correctional Center, Federal Extractiondiction Agency, Juvenile Court, and the Shelby County Sheriff's Office until he decided to take a long term medical leave until his transition.

Parris Keith Jackson leaves to cherish his beloved mother, Mary Jackson-
Byas, his loving wife and children, Brenda Jackson(Parris Jackson Jr.), Galen
Phillips, amd Megan Gibson(Jerrell); Grandchildren; Titus Phillips, Jaden Gibson, and Simone Gibson, and a host of relatives, cousins, and friends to mourn his passing.

“ Big Keith, my dancing buddy. To get it started I knew you will make it happen cousin. Keith the memories we shared growing up especially those back and forth checks I use to hear will never be forgotten . Keith I just want to say you shocked me with this one but am sure you and your lil cousin Malik going back and forth about those teams 49niners and Pittsburgh. You and my boy are together again with laughter and love you both had. You both are PAIN FREE ! You men will be greatly missed by many
