“ Aunt Pearl affectionately known as Mudear was ever kind and possessed a sweet spirit. I spent many hours in her presence. Although, I am not a blood relative I always felt welcome and loved. We were in the club together for several years. She will be missed deeply missed because she is deeply loved. RIP

“ Our hearts are heavy with sorrow, but you taught us to ABSENT from body is to be PRESENT with the Lord. Pearlie Mae Hill-Ward a true virtuous woman of God, loving mother, grandmother, great grandmother, Great great grandmother, aunt, cousin, good friend and a 2nd mother to many in our South Memphis community. I thank God you lived 95 years of life, and was able to pave the way for your family. Grandma Mudear I watched you a child climb that hill on Maryland St for 30 years to go cook at L.H. Mays Restaurant and Lounge for 20 years and 10 years at Willie Moore’s Soulfood. Thank you grandma for you was a TRUE TESTAMENT that God is REAL and you stood on the word God and prayed for all your family to be blessed in our right minds and to prosperous in life. Mudear (MY GIRL MY WORLD) you fought a GOOD FIGHT grandma. Pearlie Mae you gone from this LIFE JOURNEY but I KNOW YOU GAINED YOUR WINGS ON THE OTHER SIDE. Rest well GRANDMOTHER

YOUR GRANDDAUGHTER

I was praying that this was a bad dream but I know God saw that you was tired and I know that you are in his presence now. You was not only my aunt but you was my best friend, mother figure and a God fearing woman. I thank God for you taking the time out to help raise me and being there for me to help me stay on the right path. I know I was your favorite nephew nah Greg lol. But you always said that you loved us all the same. I am really and truly going to miss you so so much I love you auntie 💕❤️ May you rest in Heaven
Love your nephew
