

Rosetta H. Jordan-Brooks

June 16, 1928 - June 7, 2023

On June 7, 2023, our loving Heavenly Father decided to pluck another rose from His garden of love. Rosetta H. Jordan-Brooks (Rose) was born June 16, 1928, in Memphis, Tennessee. She was the eldest child born to the late Granville, Jr., and Sadie Morris Hampton.

On August 21, 1948, she married Ammon Jordan, Jr., and remained his devoted wife until the time of his death, June 5, 1993.

She accepted Christ at an early age at Mt. Nebo Missionary Baptist Church. Until her death, Rose was a faithful member of Middle Baptist Church – Whitehaven. On January 23, 2004, she was united in marriage to the late Verdell Brooks.

She leaves to cherish her memories, two daughters, Patrice J. Robinson and Paula F. Jordan; one favorite son-in-law, Jackie Robinson, all of Memphis, Tennessee; five grandchildren, Gina Sheree' Wiley (John), "Jae" Ursula Banks (Terrence), Ammon Carlos Brookins, Jackie Jordan Robinson II, and Chanta Jovan Brookins; four great-grandchildren, Demetria Nichole, Deadrick Tranell, Winter Mae, and Raya Carrington; two great-great-grandchildren, Madilyn and Ayden; two sisters, Lois H. Stockton and Joan H. Plummer; nieces, nephews, and a host of cherished cousins and valued friends.

“ Mrs. Rosetta Jordan-Brooks had a beautiful Spirit. She loved God & people. My mom believed in disciplining us. Wherever we misbehaved, .i.e. church. Mrs. Rosetta respected my mom for her parenting skills. I will miss Mrs. Rosetta dearly. May God comfort her family today & always!
