Sterling (S.T.) Davis, Jr was born on October 10, 1949, in Wynne, Arkansas. He was the eldest son of the late S.T. Davis, Sr and the late Ella Mae Gunner-Davis, grandson of the late Sunny and Katie Smith. As a young man S.T. was known as light-hearted and fun ever the prankster, he had the ability to love and laugh at life and wanted others to share in that joy. As a young adult, S. T. was known as a hard worker and avid huntsman. He worked in manufacturing and with the railroads in Memphis and Chicago. However, in retirement he started ST Davis Home Remodeling and successfully ran that business until his health began to fail in early 2019. An expert marksman, he was adept at tracking and hunting deer and rabbit.
