

Stairvester Brown

April 22, 1941 - September 6, 2021

Stairvester “Stair” Brown, 80, entered into eternal peace on Monday, September 6, 2021.

Stairvester Brown, lovingly known as “Stair”, was born in Gilmore, Arkansas, on April 22, 1941, to the late John Walter Brown, Sr. and Vator Mae Brown.

Stair was united in holy matrimony to Mrs. Emma Brown on April 27, 1964.

Stair professed his love for Christ at Beautiful Zion Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Rev. S. L. Henry. He later became a member of Pleasant Green Baptist Church, where he served faithfully.

Stair attended Wonder High School and retired from Baptist Memorial Hospital in 1991.

Mr. Brown was preceded in death by his wife, Emma Jean Brown, and four brothers, James Earl Brown, Thomas Brown, Walter Brown Jr., and Eugene Brown.

He leaves to cherish his memories: two wonderful children, Gregory (Donna) Brown of San Jose, California, and Rhonda Brown of Memphis, Tennessee; one granddaughter, Kennedi Kaitlyn Turner; six sisters, Daisy Dixon of Memphis, Tennessee, Sadie Seals, Elsie Butler, Dorothy Suggs, & Ethel Rodgers, all of West Memphis, Arkansas, and Deloris (Fredrick) Jefferson of Little Rock, Arkansas; his aunt, Ida Mae Chambers of Memphis, Tennessee; uncles, Eugene Brock of Rockford, Illinois, and L. D. Lomack of Augusta, Georgia; three sisters-in-law, Bonnistein Bradberry & Lula Mae Brown, both of Memphis, Tennessee, and Mearl Brown of Atlanta, Georgia; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, family, and friends.
