

Terron T. Page

November 7, 1995 - January 23, 2025

On November 7, 1995, the world was blessed with the life of Terron Trevaughn Page—a devoted son, a loving bonus father, a cherished brother, and a loyal friend. His journey, though far too brief, was one filled with purpose, love, and unwavering dedication to those he held dear. On January 23, 2025, Terron’s earthly mission came to an end, but his legacy will continue to live on in the hearts of all who knew him.

From an early age, Terron embodied strength, kindness, and determination. He pursued his education at Methodist University, where he laid the foundation for a life of service and excellence. Answering a higher calling, he proudly served his country as a Staff Sergeant in the United States Army, demonstrating courage, leadership, and a deep commitment to those he served alongside. His selfless spirit and unwavering dedication to duty earned him the respect of many and the admiration of all.

Beyond his service, Terron was a man of great passion—none greater than his love for his family. He was a devoted father, a son and brother, he was a source of strength, encouragement, and unconditional love, always standing as a protector and supporter of those he cherished most.

Terron’s love for football ran deep, and there was no greater testament to that than his unwavering devotion to the Baltimore Ravens.

He is survived by his parents, Myron and Jamela Page; his brothers, Aaron (Cynthia) Page of Germany, Myron Jr., his fiancée Michelle and beloved bonus son Jace, his cherished grandparents Larry and Minnie Page of Greenville Ms, Eugene and Lisateen McClain of Syracuse, NY and Johanna Williams of Hernando MS. His Uncles Eugene (Maureen) of Syracuse NY, Wendel (Toya) McCray of Hernando MS, Terrance Page of Tampa FL, and Johnathan (Kiara) Page of Spring TX. His aunts Latrese Woods of Chicago IL, Portia (Dennie) Davenport of Tomball TX, Lanisha Harris of Douglasville, GA, Trina McCray of Horn Lake MS, Lakisha Lively of Odenton MD, Tara McCray of Memphis TN, Gennifer (Richard) White of Syracuse NY, Lauren (LeDarion) Robinson of Cameron NC and Christa (Raymond) Clifton of Syracuse NY, and a host of cousins, and dear friends who will forever treasure his memory.

His presence lit up every room, his laughter was contagious, and his kindness left an unforgettable imprint on the lives he touched. Though his time here has ended, his legacy of love, strength, and dedication will continue to inspire us all.

“ Dear Page Family,

I am truly heartbroken over the passing of Terron. No words can fully ease the pain of losing someone so dear, but please know that my heart is with you all during this incredibly difficult time.

Terron was not just my son-in-law; he was my son in every way that mattered. Though they weren't married yet, he was already family, and the love and bond we shared will never fade. His kindness, warmth, and presence touched so many lives, and his memory will live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved him.

I hope you find comfort in the love of family and friends and in the beautiful moments you shared with him. Please know that I am here for you—whether to listen, support, or simply sit with you in this time of sorrow. You are not alone, and my thoughts and prayers are with you all.

*With my deepest sympathy,

“ Page was more than family he was a brother, a friend, and a light in all our lives. His love for my sister and Jace was unwavering, a beautiful testament to the kind of man he was faithful, kind, and deeply devoted.

He had a heart full of love, laughter that could brighten the darkest days, and a presence that made everyone feel valued. His kindness and strength will forever be engraved in our hearts. Though he is no longer with us in body, his love and the memories we shared will remain with us always.

“ I can't begin to imagine the heartbreak you are feeling right now, and I want you to know that my heart is with you all. Terron was an incredible person—his courage, dedication, and kindness left a lasting impact on everyone who had the honor of knowing him. His service and sacrifice will never be forgotten, but even more than that, his spirit, his laughter, and the love he shared with those around him will live on.

There are no words that can truly ease this kind of loss, but please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers.

*With my deepest sympathy and love,
