

Tia Pirtle

November 2, 1994 - August 24, 2021

Born on November 2, 1994, Tia Lanette Baldwin-Pirtle blessed her family with being the first child of Nia D. Baldwin, mother, and Dajuan L. Pirtle, father.

Since birth, Tia has always had a very happy, sweet-hearted soul and always kept a smile on her face even during her fights with Sickle Cell Anemia.

This gracious warrior traversed through all years of school and attended Remington College, where she received her Nursing Degree. Tia first became a very successful PCA at Baptist Memorial Hospital; she then became a travel PCA in which she worked at Emory Hospital in Atlanta, Georgia. If you knew Tia, then you know she loved to live her life spontaneously and out of pure passion, so she decided to leave her medical career and became a full-time entrepreneur and CEO of her boutique, The Minktique.

Tia had so much in store for the world and she fought a very powerful fight until the end on August 24, 2021. She is preceded in death by her great-grandfather, Grover Baldwin; aunt, Dionne Brownlee-Thomas, and grandmother, Zita Baldwin-Lawson.

Tia Lanette Baldwin-Pirtle leaves to cherish her memories: her mother and father, Nia Baldwin and Dajuan Pirtle; nine sisters and brothers, Lokia, Lavontae, Talia, Aalia, Gabrielle, Danielle, Dajuan Jr., Daija, and Thainarias; her grandfathers, Kelvin Vaughn and James Lawson; her grandmother, Collette Vaughn; great-grandmother, Mary Baldwin; her boyfriend, Scott Paige, Jr., and his family; stepmom, Tawana Cooper; aunt, Aerial Brownlee, and many more aunts, uncles, cousins, niece, nephew, other relatives and friends.

“ We extend our deepest condolences to The Family of Ms. Tia Pirtle,

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.

Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.”

John 14:1-2, 27

We are keeping your entire Family in our thoughts and uplifted in our prayers. May God's perfect peace and divine presence abide with each of you now and in the days ahead. Take pleasure in knowing that your beloved "Tia" is now with The Lord, rejoicing in Heaven forevermore. Look to our God for your comfort, strength, hope and abundant joy. He is the resurrection and the life. God loves you Kelvin & Collette and we do too!
