

Tomisha Hayes

September 19, 1994 - December 4, 2022

Tomisha Shuntria Hayes, affectionately known by her family as “Misha Mish”, was born September 19, 1994, in Memphis, Tennessee, to Toronda Bonds and Anderson Brown III. She attended Sheffield and Millington High Schools.

At a young age, Tomisha gave her life to Christ and later became a member of The Church of the Gospel, pastored by her grandmother, Pastor Mary Wells. Tomisha served as an usher, praise team member, and praise dancer. She was known for her exuberant presence. You would always know when she had made her arrival.

Tomisha is survived by her children, Jamari Hayes, Cayden Hayes, and Tomia Hayes; her parents, Toronda Bonds and Anderson Brown III; her stepfather, Eric Bonds; her grandparents, Anderson Brown Jr., Cassandra Brown, and Mary Wells; siblings, Malika Sullivan, Demarco Sullivan, Andrea Albright, Andrianna White, Andanuque White, and Ianesha White; and a host of cousins, nieces, and nephews
