“ Valerie (Neisey), my first cousin and friend, went through school and life together. A extremely loving and giving woman. She gave me the honor of naming her children. 😊
During our high school years, she would have Jesse (late husband) to come by to give me a ride to school. Sometimes Jesse would drop by school and take us to the Lot-a-burger stand or H Salt Fishnchips. Valerie and Jesse both were great people and friends. I have many memories that will keep me happy til the day my life circle is complete.
