“ There are so many memories with you. You made everything in life an adventure for sure. I was usually right behind you and up for whatever. I'm sorry I wasn't there. I was supposed to be. We always said that when one of us went we would be there to see them on their way to heaven. I don't know if people doubt our love and our bond. We knew though and that's what matters. I hope you're up there with Brook Brook and Mimi and that you felt peace. That's all you wanted and I hope you got it. There will never be another Edder Mae! My heart is so broken. Bye bye Miss American pie! I love you and I'll see you again someday.
