

Willie Mae Bobo

October 26, 1927 - November 6, 2022

Mrs. Willie Mae Bobo was born October 6, 1927, in Como, Mississippi, to Jack and Kizzie Williams.

She was preceded in death by her three sisters, Carrie Taylor, Gladys Lee, and Adelaide Stewart, and two brothers, Tommy Lee Williams and L. C. Williams.

Willie Mae accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior at a young age and became a member of Mt. Pisgah Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. A.C. Jackson, and the current pastor Rev. Frank J. Harris Sr. Mrs. Bobo was an active Dr. Watts member and attended church regularly until her health began to fail.

Mrs. Willie Mae Bobo, affectionately known as “Big Mama”, always had a smile on her face. She blessed many lives through her acts of kindness and love for people, young and old; whether it was offering a hot meal, a place to lay your head for a couple of days, or her last piece of candy...Big Mama would give it to you. And she LOVED her sweets! Willie Mae never wanted anyone to go without; so, if she did not have anything to give, she would always extend those loving arms and give you a warm hug. Big Mama will truly be missed.

Mrs. Willie Mae Bobo leaves to cherish her memory: five daughters, Ruthie Phillips (Walls, Mississippi), Georgia Hudson, Gladys Embery, Katie Record, and Mary Bobo; one son, Waddell Bobo; one goddaughter, Henrene Golden; and one daughter-in-law, Vivian Bobo, all of Memphis, Tennessee; nineteen grandchildren, thirty-seven great-grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Mrs. Willie Mae Bobo was preceded in death by three sons, Hardy Terry Bobo, Jessie Bobo and Curtis Bobo; two grandsons, Wesley Hudson and Joseph Pruitte; and one great-granddaughter, Carlisa Record.
